

Description

A photography entry must be an original black-and-white or color image or group of images. The entry may incorporate such techniques as photomontage, multiple exposure, negative sandwiches, and photograms. The images may be created using various lenses, filters, and light sources. Images that are manipulated digitally will be considered as digital art. Use of copyrighted material is prohibited.

Presentation

Please submit the entry in a file to woottonlit@gmail.com.