

MCPS Theatre Festival video

02/08/2017

Hundreds of middle and high school student actors, dancers, singers and stage technicians gathered at James Hubert Blake High School to hone their skills and share their talents at the sixth annual MCPS Theater Festival. Dozens of theater professionals were on hand to share their expertise and mentor students during the event. Several major colleges and universities also attended, interviewing and auditioning theater students.